IDENTITY MANAGEMENT and ACCESS CONTROL SYSTEMS

Definition of training:
Discussing different systems and strategies that can be applied in large-scale institutions and public spaces requiring access control, explaining appropriate solution options and raising awareness.

Headlines:
*	Existing Identity Management and Access Control Systems, examples from Turkiye and the World
*	The vulnerabilities of existing methods and problems encountered in applications
*	The first step of end-to-end security is Authentication…
*	Two and three factor verification methods
*	Hardware System Items and specifications
*	Software coverage and multi-campus group management
*	Visually controlled access systems (person recognition, movement, detection of second person presence, image optimization, blacklist applications)
*	Importance of integration of Physical and Virtual Access…

Duration:
1 Day (6 Hours)

Place:
A classroom with an internet connection that can accommodate up to 20 attendees.

Target group:
Large-scale Private and Public Institutions, relevant managers of public areas requiring Access Security, relevant units of facilities such as finance, energy, tourism, industrial facilities and health facilities.

Participation prerequisite:
There are no prerequisites for participation.

Document:
Certificate of participation

ÖLCSAN
"kalitenin ölçüsü"